

Guidelines for Article Challenge

1. Participants must be undergraduates of SLUSA member Universities.
2. Articles can be written in any of the three languages (English, Sinhala and Tamil)
3. The Word Limit must be between 250 – 750 words.
4. The articles must be based on any one of the following themes:
 - Highlights and unforgettable experiences from this year's Tokyo Olympics/Sri Lankan History at the Olympics
 - Healthy fitness and lifestyle in the middle of a pandemic. (What does it mean to keep fit at home/ Challenges and thoughts about what this time period means for sports)
 - A post-COVID era (What lessons have you learnt now, which you will take forward the university sports resumes again? / What are the major changes you expect to see then?)
5. Your article content must be original and cannot be copied directly from external sources. Plagiarism will be monitored strictly.
6. You have the opportunity to upload two photos relevant to the article you are writing. In the event that your article is selected to be published in the inaugural 'SLUSA Magazine' the relevant photos will also be published.

Therefore, photos must be taken from credible sources, considering the ethical and legal background. (It is recommended to select photos published by our very own university media pages)
